

Lynn Ruehlmann, storyteller, presents:
HUG A BUG

The children were mesmerized! They loved the different voices and the stories.

Cindy Henderson, Ahoskie Library, NC

Universal raves from all teachers, students and administrators!

Wendy Clatterbuck, Berryville, VA

Students and adults especially loved the variety of stories Lynn chose for us, and how she became all the different characters in the stories!

Kathy Hellum, Haslett, MI

How do bugs get huggable?

When they are marrying bumblebees!

When they are mischievous butterflies!

When they are beetles that run races!

When you come to the storytelling program, Hug a Bug, you'll laugh along with puppets, Shoe Fly and his buddy, Sox!

You'll see a mosquito disappear (thank goodness)!

And you'll get to participate in stories and sing songs along with storyteller Lynn Ruehlmann!

Lynn Ruehlmann's performances and workshops have taken her to libraries, museums, schools and colleges all across the country. Young Audiences of Virginia named her Artist of the Year, she won a Folio award for Best Actress in a Comedy, and her audiobook of her show, "Spy! The Story of Civil War Spy Elizabeth Van Lew," won two national awards. She just released the CD "It Happened in the White House."
