

Quilting Aesop

Adapted and Performed by Storyteller Lynn Ruehlmann

Aesop's Fables have been around for thousands of years.
Why? Because in these rollicking good stories, you can see yourself.
You laugh while you get the point!

- In this show you'll hear some familiar fables and some that are less-well known.
- The stories model respect, friendship, loyalty, independent thinking, and self-reliance.
- Lynn's animated portrayals of the characters in Aesop's Fables keep audiences laughing.

- After each story, a picture is added to the quilt that serves as backdrop to the show. A child from the audience is invited onstage to button the picture onto the quilt.
- Children also stay involved through frequent group participation.

Lynn Ruehlmann tells stories through theatrical portrayals of real people in history and real people she's known and bigger than life characters of myths. She has been presenting programs at festivals, museums and schools since 1990. Lynn was named "Best Actress in a Comedy" by Folio, and "Artist of the Year" by Young Audiences of Virginia. Her CD "Spy! The Story of Civil War Spy Elizabeth Van Lew" won two national awards.
